They will continue to reside in Paw Paw. Mr. and Mrs. Turrell have the best wishes of their friends.

Circuit Court.

Theodore B. Randall vs. Daniel Poole; replevin. The jury in this case rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for six cents damages and assessed the value of the property in question at the sum of $92.50, which being within the jurisdiction of a justice court gave the defendant costs to be taxed. Further proceedings stayed for 20 days.

Wilson Lee vs. James M. Longwell; case. This was an action instituted by the plaintiff for injuries to his person alleged to have been caused by the actions of the defendant who, as claimed by the plaintiff, assaulted him and felled him to the ground with such violence as to cause concussion of the brain and injury to his spine, and then turned a hose on him. It was not claimed that defendant was angry at the time of the alleged assault. The jury rendered a verdict for $750 damages; costs to be taxed in favor of plaintiff. Proceedings stayed for 60 days. The case may go to the supreme court.

The people vs. Oscar Karlsen, a Bangor druggist; violation of local option law. The respondent having heretofore entered a plea of guilty, the judge sentenced him to 27 days' imprisonment in the county jail, and fined him $125 and $33 costs; 60 days' additional imprisonment imposed in case of non-payment. Fine and costs paid.

In the case of the people vs. Henry Harvey, another Bangor druggist who had pleaded guilty to the same offense, the same sentence was imposed, except that the costs in his case were taxed at $50. He also paid.

In the case of the people vs. George W. Fisher, a Lawrence drug store man who had pleaded guilty to a similar charge, the same sentence was imposed with $58 costs. He also paid.

Edwin Murray and Charles Hinz, South Haven drug store men, were tried on the same kind of a charge and convicted by verdict of the jury. Murray was given 30 days in jail, $150 fine and $60 costs, with 60 days' additional jail in case of non-payment.

Hinz sentence was the same except that his fine was fixed at the sum of $125. Neither Murray nor Hinz has yet paid.

The people vs. Ishmael Covell; uttering and publishing a forged promissory note. Respondent sentenced to Jackson state prison for two years.

The people vs. Fred Hoffman and Charles Hoffman; embezzlement. These respondents were charged with having borrowed from N. W. Drake of Bangor a carriage and harness and afterward fraudulently disposing of the same and converting them to their own use. The case against Charles Hoffman was dismissed, there being no satisfactory evidence connecting him with the crime. Fred Hoffman pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 14 months in the Jackson state prison.

The people vs. R. C. Nyman; appeal from justice court; dismissed.

Andrew Gilbert vs. the S. H. & E. R. R. Co. The plaintiff in this case is a minor and brought suit by his next friend, Milford V. Gilbert, for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of having been wrongfully ejected from a moving train. The case was settled by payment of $100 and costs.

Jay D. Roberts vs. the S. H. & E. R. R. Co.; case on trial. In this case the plaintiff alleges that he was driving across Monroe street in the city of South Haven, he was struck by a rapidly moving train and so badly injured that his right leg had to be amputated. He claims to have exercised due care and avers that no whistle was blown nor bell rung as warning of an approaching train. The jury visited the scene of the accident yesterday. The case went to the jury last evening.

Cora M. Shafer vs. Winfield Shafer; divorce; decree granted.

WARD & BIRE

The Best Gang Plow Made.

We are exclusive agents in Paw Paw for the Moore Vineyard Gang made at Greenville. The improvement over all others is a 4 inch higher wheel and a 4 inch higher frame. It will run easier; it will turn under weeds and rye nicely where other lower frame gangs will clog up. We guarantee this plow. It won't be due until fall. The price is $18.00.

If You Want Good Paint

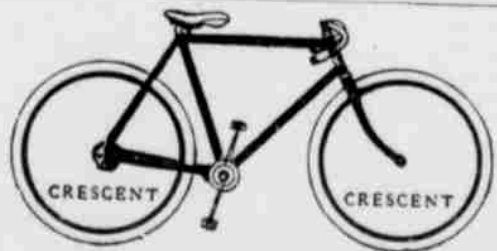

Buy Lakey's. It's warranted not to peel, check or crack off if painted on a good priming surface. Please take notice of this. The houses about Paw Paw that the paint is coming off was painted with something besides Lakey's ready mixed paint. We have never known of a single job painted with this paint from prime to the finishing coat that was unsatisfactory. We sell it at $1.40 A GALLON.

Large Barn Door Hangers.

We have just received 6 doz. pairs of heavy door hangers suitable for a 12-foot door, at a bargain price.

A bargain to us is a bargain to you. While they last,

50 Cts. a Pair.

A satisfied cyclist invariably rides a Crescent. Other makes of bicycles satisfy some, but Crescents please them all. They are built to stand up—that's why. Crescents for 1903 are light, the lines are beautiful, they run like a top. If they were not the best, we would not sell them year after year. Remember this: Crescent repairs are next to nothing.

Builders' Material.

You must not forget that we sell Lime, Cement, Water Lime, Stucco, Adamant, Hair and Brick. We sell the best so that we may gain more business.

$10

Invested in this tool will save you from $10 to $25 each season. The larger your vineyard the more you save. It will do the work of several men. It's out of the question for an up-to-date fruit man to be without a grape hoe. They are easy to handle and they pay for themselves in one season.

$10.00

We are exclusive selling agents in Paw Paw for the Grape Hoe. You can buy one on fall terms if you like.
